Employee Handbook — HR Policy Document

1. Leave Policy

All full-time employees are entitled to 18 days of paid annual leave per calendar year. In addition, employees receive 12 days of sick leave and 6 days of casual leave annually. Leave requests must be submitted through the HR portal at least 3 working days in advance, except in cases of medical emergency. Unused annual leave up to 10 days can be carried forward to the next year; any leave beyond that is forfeited.

2. Work From Home Policy

Employees may work from home up to 2 days per week, subject to manager approval. Employees in probation period (first 3 months) are required to work from office full-time. All remote work days must be logged in the internal attendance system before 10:00 AM.

3. Working Hours

Standard working hours are from 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Monday to Friday, with a 1-hour lunch break. Core hours during which all employees must be available are 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Flexible start times between 9:00 AM and 10:00 AM are permitted with prior notice to the reporting manager.

4. Reimbursement Policy

Employees can claim reimbursement for internet bills up to Rs. 1,000 per month if working remotely, and for local travel related to official work. All reimbursement claims must be submitted with valid bills within 30 days of the expense, through the Finance portal. Claims submitted after 30 days will not be processed.

5. Notice Period

Employees who have completed probation are required to serve a notice period of 60 days upon resignation. Employees still in probation are required to serve a notice period of 15 days. The company reserves the right to provide payment in lieu of notice at its discretion.

6. Code of Conduct

All employees are expected to maintain professionalism and respect in the workplace. Harassment, discrimination, or any form of misconduct will result in disciplinary action, which may include termination. Employees must report any violations to HR immediately through the confidential complaint portal.

7. Performance Review

Performance reviews are conducted twice a year, in April and October. Reviews are based on goal completion, peer feedback, and manager assessment. Salary revisions, if applicable, are typically implemented following the April review cycle.
